[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JANUARY 19.

Dispatches by Way of London

LONDON, Jan 16—The weather is tempestuous. Much damage has been done to shipping.

The command of the army of the Vosges is assigned to Manteuffel. It comprehends Werder's force, and he must be strengthened.

Chauzey's force is reorganized and about to resume operations. Its position is strong.

Ruchadi Pasha, Turkish Minister of Finance, in a note to Favre, declining to attend the Conference, reserves the right to sign the protocol.

Another Manifesto from Bismarck.

LONDON, Jan 16,—A note from Bismarck in defence of the German mode of warfare, appeals for witness to the English and Americans. It complains of the Turcos, and cites case against the French for violating the rules laid down by the Geneva Convention, accusing the French of the use of explosive missiles, asserts that they burn ships, maltreat prisoners, and have encouraged the violation of parole. He says the French rulers do not wish peace, and that they made the press prevent a National Assembly, and force the people to war.

Bombardment of Paris

FLORENCE, Jan. 15—Sunday—The bombardment of Paris continued on the 14th. Forts Issy, Vanores and Mont Rouge are silent.

The Battle at Le Mans.

LONDON, Jan 16—Several Prussian officers were killed in the battle at Gien when the Prussians were dislodged.

An order of Chauzey attributes the abandonment of Le Mans to an inexplicable panic which in less important positions would compromise the safety of all. He appeals to the soldiers to rally and fight vigorously.

News from Versailles

VERSAILLES, Jan 16—Gen Werder was seriously attacked yesterday by four French corps south of Belfort. The battle lasted nine hours. The attack was victoriously carried at all points. German loss 200.

The French to day unmasked fresh batteries on the south of Paris. Their fire was immediately encountered by German batteries and [illegible] silenced. German lost only two officers and seventeen men.

LONDON, Jan [illegible] the Queen [illegible] Mans [illegible] motive [illegible] [illegible] state [illegible] retreated in excellent order. Fifty thousand French troops had left [illegible] were to be [illegible]

The French Retreat

LONDON, Jan 17—A dispatch from Versailles dated the 16th says details of the [illegible] Chauzey are coming to hand. On the [illegible], when two miles west of Lemans, the French were driven into a disorderly retreat with the loss of 4 000 prisoners. Considerable supplies were taken, but the large stores of material which were recently there had been carried off by the retreating French. Beamont was occupied without notable resistance and 1,000 prisoners taken.

The Alabama Claims

LONDON, Jan 1[illegible]—The Right Hon. W. E. Forster delivered an address last evening in which he alluded to the Alabama question, and said [illegible] good reason to hope that the new Minister [illegible] the United States would be a powerful agent [illegible] the removal of the feeling of estrangement which now divide the people of Europe and America.

The Atlantic Cables.

KINGSTON, Jan 17, via Havana, Jan 18—The West India cable Company's steamer is still engaged in the work of grappling for the cable in 500 fathoms of water, with sandy bottom. The electrician is confident of its immediate recovery. A proposition from the Pacific Mail Steamship Company that their steamers shall call at a port on this island once a month in consideration of an annual subsidy of £5 000, has been presented to the Legislature and referred to a committee.

ST THOMAS Jan 12, via HAVANA, Jan 18—The great dock, sunk by the hurricane in 1867, has been completely raised and towed into shallow water.

Additional War News

VERSAILLES, Jan 16—A concentrated fire is maintained on Fort D Issy. At present the French are repairing breaches in its wall.

BORDEAUX, Jan 16—The Prussians have occupied Alencan. Gen Chauzey continues to retreat in good order. In the North the advanced guard of Gen Faidherbe's army re entered Albert. The army of the East, under Bourbaki, is rapidly approaching Belfort with the view of raising the siege. Bourbaki, after the battle on Sunday which lasted all day, occupied the town of Mount Belliard and the adjacent villages.

Chauzey reports that the Prussians renewed the attack on his army on Sunday. The 21st corps fought well and captured a number of prisoners.

LONDON, Jan 17—A dispatch from Versailles announced that the French are moving heavy guns from Issey and Vanores. King William visits Prince Albrecht who is sick at Chartres.

Earl Granville will preside over the sittings of the conference which is to be held at the foreign office. Rumors that the conference will adjourn after a formal opening have received no confirmation.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16—A Herald cable from Paris the 13th, says: Violent Republicans insist on using Greek fire for artillery purposes. Gen Trochu opposes the atrocity. The ultra Reds declare their determination to use the invention against the Germans should the enemy enter Paris.

NEW YORK Jan 18—The World's cable from Brevetliers, of January 17th, says Bourbaki attacked the Germans before Belfort on the 15th and was repulsed along the whole line. The combat was obstinate and lasted till dark. The French renewed the fight on the 16th and were again repulsed with heavy loss in killed.

BRUSSELS, Jan 17—Prince de Joinville was commissioned Major by Chauzey, and has been arrested by order of Gambetta and sent to England.

Dispatch from Gambetta.

LONDON, Dec 17—A Paris dispatch of the 13th says: Gambetta's last dispatch to the authorities here, which was suppressed by them, called upon Trochu to take the initiatory and make vigorous sorties upon the Germans, so that they might be prevented from detaching men from Paris to reinforce armies in the provinces. It is said inaction here injures the cause of the French. Republicans in this city insist on the adoption of Greek fire for military purposes.

WASHINGTON CITY

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan 17—In the Senate, Ramsey from the Committee on Post Offices, reported, with sundry amendments, the House bill revising, consolidating and amending the statutes relating to the Post Office Department at Washington.

In the House bills were introduced and referred, by Peters, regulating the removal of actions from State to U S Courts, also, regulating the compensation of criers in the U S Courts; by Buffington, to enable the Atlantic & Pacific R R to mortgage its road, and to confer certain jurisdiction on the U S Courts for the District of Missouri; by Starkweather, authorizing the appointment of commissioners by the President to ascertain the amount of damage done by the Alabama and other rebel cruisers; by Prosser, prescribing the modes of holding elections for President and Vice President and Members of Congress; by Cullom amendatory of the act relating to the courts of Utah, by Terry, approving certain acts of the Legislative Assembly of Montana, by Cook, prescribing the oath of office to be taken by persons who participated in the late rebellion, but who are not excluded from holding office by the Constitutional Amendment, by ——, to create a railroad bureau for the United States; by Johnson, to restore the Cook military reservation in California to the public lands; by Bradford, of Colorado, granting the right of way and land to the Colorado Central R R Co.

WASHINGTON, Jan 18—The bill introduced to day by Sargent for the admission of Utah provides that the Constitution shall provide by an article forever irrevocable, that without the consent of Congress, after the admission of the State, all persons shall be forever prohibited from contracting any bigamous and plural marriages or relations of concubinage. The bill forbids any mark to be put on or permitted on any ballot by which the persons casting it can be identified.

The Income Tax

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17—Judge Kelly yesterday received copies of the opinion, adverse to the constitutionality of the income tax given by Wm M Evarts and Mr Miller.

Repealing the Income Tax Recommended.

WASHINGTON, Jan 19—General Pleasonton, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in an interview with the Committee of Ways and Means, strongly advocated the immediate repeal of the Income tax, the principal argument being that the cost of collecting it will be greater than the amount obtained.

EASTERN STATES.

New York News

NEW YORK, Jan 17—A detachment of three hundred recruits will leave here to [illegible] the 18th Infantry at Atlanta, Georgia.

Conflicting reports leave us in doubt [illegible] to the fate of the Hornet expedition, but a [illegible] of evidence indicates that Ryan and his men [illegible] with disaster after landing, though the [illegible] escaped to sea without injury. Cuban agents are confident of the safety of the expedition. They say that at Havana an account places the landing on the 12th, while they are in receipt of positive information that it took place on the 7th. They also say the Hornet left Aspinwall on the 3d ult, which would enable her to reach the Cuban coast long before the 12th.

Among the passengers who arrived yesterday by the City of Mexico from Havana was [illegible] Cespedes wife of the Cuban President [illegible] was captured while proceeding to this country [illegible] Guaymas Inlet and released by the Spaniards [illegible] condition she would immediately leave [illegible] A large number of prominent Cubans went [illegible] board to welcome her. She reports Cubans are determined to continue the contest [illegible] are sanguine of success.

To morrow a vote will be taken in joint [illegible] when it is expected Blair will receive three [illegible] votes, those of absentees.

Minnesota Senator

CHICAGO, Jan 1[illegible]—Hon Wm Windom was to day elected U S Senator from Minnesota [illegible] term commencing on March 4 next.

Connecticut Politics.

WATERFORD, Ct., Jan 17—The Democratic State Convention for the nomination of [illegible] officers met in this city to day. The present [illegible] were renominated by acclamation.

Printers' Strike

OSWEGO, Jan 17—The printers in [illegible] Press office belonging to the Typographical [illegible] are on a strike in consequence of [illegible] of men not members.

The San Domingo Expedition

SANDY HOOK Jan 17—[illegible] steamer sailed this afternoon [illegible] Commissioners on board [illegible] the harbor they met and [illegible] ceed direct to San Domingo City [illegible] Bay of Samana only if the Cap[illegible] it advisable. Their reason for [illegible] tal first is to show proper respect [illegible] ties of the country.

A Rumor Denied

BOSTON, Jan 17—There is no foundation for the report of the resignation of Oliver Ames as President of the Union Pacific Railroad.

New York Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Jan 18—A Canadian [illegible] on the authority of Government [illegible] states that the Granada, lately seized at Port Hoote, was taken in charge for violation of revenue not fishing laws. If this is so it gives the case a different aspect. The case is now receiving official attention at Washington.

The trial of the Camden election rioters began yesterday in the U S District Court. The cases excite considerable interest from the fact that they are the first arising under the laws to enforce the 15th amendment.

Agents of France for a few months have been buyers of arms in American markets, and as a rule purchase the best quality. Shipments of artillery have been small. A considerable quantity of harness for artillery purposes appear on the manifests of the French vessels. A manufacturing firm is now under contract with the French for their entire production of weapons, and is furnishing 100,000 daily of guns shipped from England(?)

Destructive Storm in Illinois.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18—The newspapers of Northern and Central Illinois are filled with accounts of the storm on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, from one to two hundred miles south of here. More rain fell on the first day, and froze nearly as fast as it fell. Roofs of houses, awnings for est and fruit trees are covered with immense quantities of ice, and added to this great weight, the snow fell on Saturday and Sunday. Great damage ensued by the crushing of roofs and trees in many localities, orchards were injured by the breaking of limbs. Directly west of here the storm was less severe, though considerable snow fell.

Arms Landed for the Cubans.

NEW YORK Jan 19—Information has been received in this city that guns and ammunition of war landed on the coast of Cuba on the 6th from the steamer Hornet, did not fall into the hands of the authorities as reported from Havana, but were received by the insurgents before the vessel sailed for Aspinwall. President Cespedes and the commander of the expedition had fixed the point of disembarkation and the time in which it should be effected. Cespedes was not far distant from Punta Brava on the 6th instant, and the steamer touched there at the time agreed, and the cargo was landed by night.

Railroad Arrangements

OMAHA Jan 19—On and after Jan 21st the Chicago, Burlington and Missouri River Railroad having received the contract for carrying the U S California through mail will run on Saturday an express train east, on the arrival of the Union Pacific train from the west. By this arrangement passengers leaving San Francisco on Tuesday will make direct connection at Omaha on Saturday for all eastern points, and avoid the detention of one day which heretofore existed. The road is free from snow and makes prompt connections.

Cold Weather in Illinois

CHICAGO, Jan 18—The snow and cold weather has destroyed the prospect for a peach crop in Illinois. The late rain and snow storm in the west did great damage to orchards, forests and houses, by the crushing weight of ice and snow.

ROBERT BURNS.—When Burns died it seemed likely that he would be forgotten. The last years of his life were full of shame and disgrace. He had died of a cold caught when he was drunk and to the sin of intemperance he added a shame and sin of another sort that every body knew about. But there was something about him that could not be buried or lost any more than [illegible] A few years before his death, he had published a volume of poems by subscription which many of the subscribers, like subscribers in our days doubtless never read but the time had already come when plowmen and milkmaids denied themselves the common necessaries of life in order to own a copy. And later when hundreds of thousands gathered to celebrate the centennial of his birthday and his fame was co-extensive with the race. And the great explanation of it all is that Burns got so near to the heart of our common humanity. He found out the grace and goodness of common things—writing "psalms of life that enter as intimately into the life of a mouse as of a hero"—and so he made himself near and dear to all mankind.—Robert Collyer

SATURDAY MORNING JANUARY 21, 1871

Great Hopes from a Small Matter

Much comfort has been given to the Democracy by the attack of Senator Sumner on President Grant The primary cause of this attack readers will remember was the negotiation conducted by the President for the acquisition of San Domingo Mr Sumner was especially wrathful because as he alleged the negro government of Hayti had been menaced and insulted in the transaction and his invective was as bitter as it was unwarranted They however are very narrow political observers who suppose that this is an entering wedge to divide the Republican party Mr Sumner must occasionally have one of these 'tantrums They are to be looked for pretty regularly, but end generally in merely adding another fiery declamation to his 'Works' and nothing more There is no talent for leadership in Mr Sumner he is universally regarded as hasty in his judgments, imperious in his disposition, given to hobbies, and a very termagant in scolding He is a useful man in his way, but nobody thinks of following him as a political leader Even Massachusetts, though she keeps him in the Senate because he well represents certain phases and tendencies of New England life and growth, would never look to him as a leader in practical politics. To-day Gen Grant could carry Massachusetts against Mr Sumner on any of the latter's hobbies or on all of them taken together

For several years Mr Sumner has been accustomed to have his way a good deal, and he wants to have his way still In the long fight against Andrew Johnson he was always at the [illegible] and the force of circumstances made it [illegible] for the Republican majority to sec[illegible] many of his measures Affairs [illegible] such a shape that they were [illegible]k Johnson down or submit [illegible] by him This condition [illegible] Sumner an advantage and [illegible] appear more like a leader than [illegible] now Sumner and a few like [illegible] themselves entitled to lead, [illegible] because Grant will not rec[illegible] and wink which they may [illegible] quick to take their hints He [illegible] to do their bidding merely [illegible] choose to regard themselves as [illegible] In short he does not regard [illegible] commands

[illegible] case some of the President's ideas [illegible] his way of doing things have come in con[illegible] with some of Mr Sumner's hobbies The Massachusetts Senator therefore strikes a bel[illegible] attitude at once, and begins to let [illegible] But the situation is [illegible] what it was in the times of [illegible] when party lines were sharply drawn [illegible] for any Senator or Representative to vote with Johnson was equiva[illegible] himself a deserter from [illegible] party Therefore Sumner [illegible] as he could then Not only [illegible] in this instance to defeat the [illegible] but he has called down [illegible] general censure from quar[illegible] least expected it. The flurry [illegible] already quite subsided, and our [illegible] will soon discover that [illegible] something more than this to di[illegible] the Republican party and cause its over[illegible] The [illegible] and comfort rendered them [illegible] can hardly be said to be [illegible] substantial kind

Wagon Roads.

[illegible] people of Oregon are excited [illegible] no forget the ne[illegible] good wagon roads Rail[illegible] wagon roads in fact [illegible] makes the [illegible] more necessary [illegible] inkered [illegible] Legislators but the want of [illegible] the construction of [illegible] every part of the [illegible] macadamized or raised roads [illegible] Roads can be constructed [illegible] withstanding our heavy [illegible] their long continuance, may [illegible] good in mid winter If roads are [illegible] up so as to shed the water that falls, [illegible] remain in fair condition through the winter months In the Wallamet valley especially, the soil is singularly firm [illegible] arrangements are made to drain the [illegible] off This question of good wagon roads has not yet received the attention at the hands of the people or of the Legislature [illegible] its importance demands but it is to be hoped that sufficient interest will ere long be aroused [illegible] improvements worthy of the enterprise of our people

In the recently published letter of Senator elect Vance, of North Carolina, it will be remembered that he asserted, in vindication of his present loyalty, that he had not made a political speech in four years This is a quibble He made a speech on November 17 1870, at Washington, before the Ladies Memorial Association, in which he used the following language, and much more of the same sort The cause for which brave men (Confederates) fell and whom it is proposed to honor and venerate by a contemplated monument, was not either a dead or lost cause That principle was rife within the breast of every true Southerner, and time will prove the justness of the principles that led us to that struggle, and, if we would only bide our time, we would yet rejoice over the part that we took in the struggle' This is the sort of loyalty he hopes to get into the United States Senate upon

The Oregon City Enterprise argues that the subsidy for the construction of locks at the falls of the Wallamet should have been given to the P T Co Its reasons are first, that the P T Co offered to construct the locks for $75,000 less than has been given to the other company second, that the best hope of maintaining a competition in transportation between the railroad and the river was to strengthen the P. T. Co These are good reasons but the Enterprise is not wise when it supposes that such reasons will weigh anything with the ring who controlled the Legislature There is no money for the ring in such reasons

A dispatch from San Francisco (Jan 10th) gives the following in regard to the Northern Pacific railroad "Captain Wm C Walker, late of the Sacramento Tide Land Reclamation Company will go up next week to take charge of the construction in Oregon, taking with him engineers, firemen, blacksmiths etc One hundred and seventy five Chinamen will go with him, and two hundred more will follow on the next steamer From 1 500 to 2 000 men will be at work as soon as possible"

On the 7th inst the ship Horatio Harris sailed from New York for the Columbia river with a cargo of rails and spikes for the Northern Pacific railroad

Tammany's Candidate

The message which Gov Hoffman delivered to the New York Legislature a few days ago is severely criticised by the press A considerable part of it is devoted to impertinent intermeddling in national affairs and the remainder of it to the Tammany ring The New York Times opens its review of the document in this way

Gov Hoffman's reputation will not be improved by the Message he sent to the Legislature yesterday It is a weak and discreditable document and will be accepted as evidence of his abject vassalage to the corrupt combination that rules the State It concedes much space to trivial and irrelevant topics suppresses or perverts facts concerning questions about which the tax payers feel a lively curiosity, and makes no reference to matters that have awakened the deepest interest in the community It is a Message of which a statesman would be ashamed, and of which a tool of Tammany would alone be content to proclaim himself the author.

Two fifths of the Message are devoted to Federal affairs The tariff, the financial policy of the National Treasury, and the recently enacted election law are topics to which Tammany's candidate for the Presidency directs his attention His views are commonplace, and in regard to specie payments, positively silly He declares that resumption may be effected by the Government within twelve months, and he declares that the banks have no responsibility in the matter—that they have no duties to perform in reference to a return to specie payments The determination of Congress and the President to secure an honest election provokes him beyond measure He cannot conceal his wrath against the means employed and to be employed, to break down the infamous agencies on which his party have relied for success in this City

After detailing at length the complicity of the Governor in the schemes of Tammany and the railroad rings, headed by Jim Fisk the Times closes thus

Only one conclusion is possible It is that Gov Hoffman is the obedient creature of the shameful gang which constitutes the Tammany Erie combination He is at Albany to do their bidding It is idle to talk of his antecedents, of his personal character, or of the ambition he cherishes. He must be judged as he is—as the mere instrument of unscrupulous men, and all his hopes of political preferment rest upon the support they are willing to give him. The fact that he consented to be the candidate of the Erie Ring, with all its crimes, and the Tammany Ring, with a record as black as circumstances can make it, was fatal to all his pretensions as a politician relying on his merits. The Message we print this morning is the crowning evidence of his bondage, and of his utter unfitness for the position into which he has been thrust, by means as degrading to himself as to the State which is now paying the penalties of Democratic rule

In some parts of Oregon a bushel of potatoes will now bring as much as a bushel of wheat,—perhaps in a few localities considerably more. For a state of things like this to exist in a country where six bushels of potatoes can be raised easier than one bushel of wheat, argues great inattention in agricultural management

There arrived at the port of New York during the year 1870, 212,000 immigrants, a loss as compared with the year 1869, of 47,000 The number of arrivals for 1870 was about the same as for 1868. It may reasonably be expected [illegible] the return of peace in Europe, emigration thence to this country will be very largely increased

Army disbursements in the Deparment of California for the year 1868, were $10,488,136, for the year 1869, $8,256,645, and for the year 1870, $6,383,792 This shows a regular and very large decrease. Similar reductions have been made in all the Departments.

The wife of Rev J. W R Sellwood died on Wednesday of last week, at Milwaukie

Albany papers express the belief that the man named Palmer said to be from Oregon, who was drowned a few days ago at San Francisco, was E H Palmer of Albany.

The excavation for the basement of the new Penitentiary is almost finished The rock for the foundation is already on the ground and the stockade fence around the new site is also completed. At the present time the men are busily employed making sash and doors, assisted by steam power, purchased of ex-Senator Nesmith, and machinery attached to it. Early in the season the work of laying the foundation will be commenced. So says the Statesman

We learn from the Statesman that the present term of the Wallamet University has commenced with a full attendance of pupils, numbering in the Literary Department not less than one hundred and eighty The efforts of the Faculty to provide instruction in all branches needed by the progressive spirit of the age meets with a generous support from the friends and patrons of the Institution On Friday afternoon of each week in addition to the usual college exercises, arrangements have been made by which addresses on some suitable subjects will be delivered by the different Professors of the Medical Department, which the public are respectfully invited to attend

From the Statesman For several days past the Board of State Land Commissioners, consisting of Gov. Grover, Secretary Chadwick and State Treasurer Fleischner, have been in session, hearing testimony and argument as to conflicting claims of school lands in this county, under the State law of 1868, as to priority of occupancy and settlement. The following contests have been heard but are not yet decided Kinges vs Grimes and Page vs Sullivan The Board is commencing in earnest to hear and dispose of conflicting titles to State and school lands of which there seem to be quite a number now on hand The Senate Chamber is to be fitted up for the future trial of such causes

The Steamship Scheme

[From the Sacramento Union Jan 11]

Senator Ramsey, of Minnesota has introduced a bill to subsidize a line of steamships from Puget Sound to the Hawaiian Islands We take this to be a part of the Holladay scheme for steamer service to New Zealand and Australia touching at Honolulu It would add greatly to the importance of that town, and might in the end result in an arrangement to have the China and Japan steamers touch at the same place the fare charges being the same to Puget Sound as to San Francisco Either such an arrangement will have to be made or the influence of the great Northwest, with its Northern Pacific Railway will strain a point in Congress to secure an independent line of steamships direct from Puget Sound to Japan and China The force of this influence may be surmised when we consider that the port of Duluth on Lake Superior, is (by water) nearer to New York than Chicago, and nearer by a thousand miles to Japan than Chicago, and that the route of that railway traverses the most fertile uninhabited region of the United States, and is contiguous to the best agricultural region of British North America Such interest are bound to have a hearing in Congress If the United States don't take care of them the government of the Dominion will Puget Sound have her steamship connection with Asia either indirectly, by a subsidized line to Honolulu or directly by one subsidized equally with the San Francisco line, and the Dominion is as much interested in it as the United States

Somebody writing from St Joseph to the Missouri Republican, talks eloquently of "citadels of liberty," etc, and winds up by favoring Frank Blair for the United States Senate 'From association with many Confederate soldiers," says the writer, I am confident that a large majority of them prefer General Blair' Upon which the St Joseph, Mo, Union remarks "Exactly Loyal men take back seats Let us make loyalty odious! To the front ye who brought desolation upon the land in your attempt to break up the Union Let you, by all means, guide in the selection of our Senator"

WASHINGTON FACT AND GOSSIP

It is probable that a new registry law for cities of over fifty thousand inhabitants will be passed this session of Congress

Ex Postmaster General Randall has just returned from Japan, whither he accompanied Wm H Seward He says the venerable statesman is suffering from complete paralysis of both arms so that he is deprived of the use of them With this exception his health seems to be unimpaired He proposes to extend his trip to India, and on his way home will visit St Petersburg, upon invitation of the Czar of Russia

The New York Evening Post remarks as follows upon the late indications of rebel presumption Senator McCreery demands the restoration of Arlington to General Lee's heirs, and the disinterment of the bones of Union soldiers buried there John H Surratt is lecturing on his connection with Wilkes Booth in plots against President Lincoln, Finally, one J B Read, having been granted a patent by Jeff Davis for an improved cannon shot, now comes to Washington and demands an extension of his patent, and enforces his claim by filing papers issued to him at Richmond Cannot somebody give peace to these poor ghosts that squeak and gibber in the Washington streets?

The New York Tribune's Washington dispatch of the 10th says "It has long been known by some of the friends of Secretary Fish that his retirement from the State Department was determined upon by him nearly a year ago, and there has never been a time since his appointment when he would not gladly have returned to private life He accepted the position originally under protest, and was only induced to remain in the Cabinet by the earnest and frequent solicitations of the President. Nearly a year ago, when the President decided upon the removal of Motley as Minister to England, it was arranged that Fish should succeed him, but owing to the breaking out of the foreign war, it was thought, as troublesome complications might arise, that Fish's ability and experience would be of greater service to the country at the head of the State Department, and he was induced to remain For several months past it has been known to the friends of Fish that he would retire as soon as a suitable successor could be found. That person has been found, and the change will be made at the close of the present Congress Senator Morton will then be appointed Secretary of State, and the political reasons which a few months ago prevented his acceptance of the English mission will have been so modified that he will be enabled to accept, as his successor will not take his seat before December of the present year."

POLITICAL NOTES

The San Francisco Chronicle thinks that the President, without sufficient reason, treated the Oregon delegation discourteously. It adds Senator Williams is the peer of any member of Gen Grant's Cabinet, as at present constituted, and his friends and the Pacific Coast were entitled to a respectful hearing from the President

The Board of State canvassers of Florida, have completed the canvass of the returns of the State election, and declare that the entire vote for Lieutenant Governor is 24,278, of which Hon Samuel T Day, Rep, received 12,446, thus defeating W D. Bloxham by 614 For member of Congress the entire vote cast, is 21,251, of which Hon Josiah T Walls, Rep, received 12,439, defeating S L. Niblack by 627 votes The Senate is a tie. Republican majority in the Assembly.

Democrats are friskly gleeful over what they term the irreconcilable differences of Republicans Do they ever ask themselves whether the differences of the Democratic party are in any way reconcilable? When will the high tariff Democrat of Pennsylvania and the free trade Democrat of Illinois be [illegible] When will the Union War Democrat of Maine or Iowa [illegible] agree with the sincere Calhoun Democrat of South Carolina, or the Lost Cause Knight of recalcitrant Kentucky? Can divergences be wider or more irreconcilable?

The Tribune's Washington special of the 10th, says The information received to-day concerning the Missouri Senatorial contest, apparently makes the defeat of Blair certain. The united Republicans have one majority on joint ballot, with one Senator sick or absent The Democrats will make no caucus nomination, and will go into the election with two other candidates besides Blair, finding it impossible to unite upon him The Republicans are rapidly consolidating upon Judge Wagner, Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court, who was last Fall re elected to his position upon the bench by the unanimous vote of both parties, He is said to be the ablest jurist in the West

SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 21, 1871.

CITY.

Oregon State Horticultural Society.—The session of this Society was continued yesterday, and the business on hand was disposed of. It was agreed to hold a joint exhibition with the State Agricultural Society on the State Fair grounds next fall. A resolution was adopted recommending twelve varieties of apples as best suited to general culture in this State, as follows: Gravenstein, Rambo, Fall Pippin, Baldwin, Northern Spie, Ortley, Blue Pearmain, Æsop Spitzenburg, Roxbury Russet, Winesap, Swaar, Red Cheek Pippin and Yellow Newtown Pippin. A list of premiums was agreed upon for articles enumerated in class 12, 13 and 14 as published by the State Agricultural Society—fruits, flowers and vegetables; rules were adopted, governing entries, exhibitions and premiums:

1st. Any person exhibiting articles in classes 12, 13, and 14, obtained from other growers, shall forfeit the entrance fee and premiums, and in all cases where a premium is awarded the name of the variety shall be given.

2d. The name of the exhibitor may be placed on articles on exhibition in the classes 12, 13 and 14 when desired.

3d. All entries in classes 12, 13, and 14, must be made on or before the second day of the Fair, and all articles shall be placed on exhibition by 10 o'clock A. M. of the 3d day.

A resolution was adopted providing for a committee of three to report, at a special meeting to be held in this city May 2d, 1871, on the propriety of holding an exhibition of summer fruits and flowers in this city at some time during the season; and Messrs. John McCraken, Simeon Francis and A. J. Dufur were appointed such committee.

After a vote of thanks to the Good Templars for the use of their hall, the Society adjourned to meet in Portland, May 2d, 1871.

An Unmitigated Nuisance.—Hanging about almost every exhibition or entertainment in this city, is a lot of rough, noisy and ill-bred boys who [illegible] to make the place excessively disagreeable. The management at Oro Fino, long since [illegible] them from the house, but frequently when there is nothing else going on to take their [illegible], they hang around the sidewalk in front and amuse themselves by rough scuffling, loud and sometimes obscene talk, jostling passersby, and annoying people who go in or out the theater with importunities for checks or quarters to pass them in. This is a nuisance, but it is [illegible] endurable, because it is not the fault of the management, and when once inside [illegible] enjoy the play in quiet. But at places where these boys manage to get inside, they are an unmitigated nuisance as to thoroughly disgust everybody. At the panorama exhibition [illegible] night, a lot of them got together and [illegible] to disturb and annoy the entire audience [illegible] loud talk, and ill-bred remarks on the [illegible] Similar disturbances have frequently [illegible] at other entertainments; in fact, it is so [illegible] that many people who do not care to go [illegible] merely to be annoyed instead of amused, have almost entirely ceased to attend such places. Managers reserve to starve at their business if they will permit their audiences to be abused in such a way.

Just as we Supposed.—A correspondent thus explains the "phenomenon" mentioned a few mornings since in this paper:

Mr. Editor—In your paper, yesterday morning, I noticed a description of a "wonderful phenomenon," lately discovered near Oswego. As there is a large portion of superstition in the human mind, I think it best to expose the joke (for it was nothing more) while it is still fresh in the minds of the people.

The trick was perpetrated upon your informant solely for sport and, as they admit themselves, was carried out as follows: The wonderful light was made by fastening an old Chinese lantern to the end of a long pole and then in the hands of a man. The transformation from a beautiful light to a blazing star was done by means of a slit in the side of the lantern, and when this was turned to the spectators the burning candle could be seen without any intervening object. Imagination performed a very conspicuous part in this trick. The noise was caused by a person blowing on an instrument known as a "panther call." These are the principal facts of the case as I obtained them from Mr. Rhoades himself. It was a joke played upon your informant. Nothing more, nothing less.

Their Money's Worth.—A few passengers who arrived at Monticello at the end of last week took passage on the steamer Rescue for Portland last Monday, it being thought they could thus arrive here sooner than to wait for the [illegible] boat, though it was known the Rescue would be delayed some time by the agents and officers of the Northern Pacific Co., who had her chartered for surveying purposes. The steamer's trip to Portland was, however, one of the longest on record. A passenger says the river was [illegible] and measured in every conceivable direction [illegible] toward Portland; the steamer [illegible] Kalama, thence to Pumphrey's Landing, then [illegible] Coffin, then somewhere else, first on one side of the [illegible] and then on another, till it seemed as if all hands must die of old age and [illegible] before they should reach this city. From Monday morning till Thursday night they plowed the raging main of the Columbia and its [illegible], fretting like caged beasts and birds, and moralizing bitterly on "man's inhumanity to man." That crowd of passengers think that surveying is an excellent thing when not carried to excess; but that, like hash, it may get to be obnoxious under certain circumstances.

"Pap" Provided Under Protest.—The following resolutions were adopted by the Board of Trustees of East Portland, at their meeting of Monday evening:

Whereas, The Legislature at its late session passed a law called "A Bill to Protect Litigants," and which, since it establishes a monopoly in legal advertising and compels the payment of rates greater than those generally established prior to the passage of said law, deserves to be known as "a bill to rob litigants and provide pap for the Oregon Herald," and

Whereas, Some question may exist as to whether the provisions of said so-called "bill to protect litigants," extend to the publication of such notices as are required to be published by the Act incorporating the city of East Portland; therefore

Resolved, That the City Recorder is hereby directed to cause the notices required to be published for the improvement of G street to be published in said Oregon Herald newspaper.

Passengers for Portland.—The steamship Idaho sailed from San Francisco yesterday for Portland, with the following passengers: Capt J C Ainsworth, W W Kidder, W Abrille, G A F Layton, H H Hobbs, J Bloom, W J Hamilton, H Rowe, A Hinman, M B Almy, L G Crone, H E Sherwood, J T Miller, E P Roberts, C B Shattuck, A S Bush and family, V W Van Wyck and wife, Mrs L Hawkins, J W Wiscanver and wife, T McKay, W Richardson, C B Bond, M B Silver, T G Walker, A H Morgan, D A Taylor, Miss McHale, Andrew Crowley, Owen Thorn, W Allen and family, Mrs W O'Hara, F Dekum, T G Owen, M Gallagher, Mrs E Belkie, Mrs S Erickson and child.

Eureka!—Without the aid of even a conundrum book, we have solved the knotty problem why it is that the Police Commissioners and the Chief of Police are so particular about enforcing section 1 of the small pox ordinance, requiring families to report each case to them, while they do not think it best to comply with section 3, which enjoins it upon the chief police officer to notify the public of such cases. The notice required of physicians to the police authorities is entirely precautionary and designed to enable the sanitary officials to keep out of danger. If the people are afraid, let 'em get their own notices of small pox locations.

Shipment to Victoria and Puget Sound.—The following is the list of the California's freight for Victoria and Puget Sound: 1,225 pkgs mdse; 33 sks wheat and oats; 235 bbls flour; 1 roll leather; 2 trunks; 1 box treasure, $20,000; 10 kgs sugar; 335 sks bran; 668 bbls flour; 46 sks and 2,063 lbs middlings; 2,171 lbs wheat; 4,604 lbs shorts; 141 bxs apples; 21 bales tow; 5 pkgs and 1 bdl fruit trees; 3 gunnies hams; 1 cs and 1 bale Oregon woolen cloth; 1 pkg woolen blankets; 1 bale flannels; 6 kgs lard; 20 bbls mess pork, and 1 gunny hams.

East Portland Street Improvement.—At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees of East Portland, a resolution was adopted directing the Recorder to give notice of the intention of the Board to improve G street by grading, laying plank roadway, side- and cross walks, etc. G street is the second street north of the ferry landing. Near Second street the cost of improving will be considerable, but further back it will be done at little expense. The petition of the property holders along the street, for the improvement, was quite unanimous.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The subjoined items are from the Advocate:

The Ladies' Furnishing Society of the Taylor street M. E. Church will hold their monthly sociable in the Lecture room of the Church on Wednesday eveing next.

Rev. Dr. Lindsley, of the First Presbyterian Church, in this city, has been delivering an exceedingly interesting and instructive series of lectures to young men, on Sabbath evening. The fifth in the course will be delivered next Sabbath evening.

In a letter of Jan. 11, Rev. J. H. Wilbur writes from Simcoe Indian Reservation: I entered immediately upon my duties, as Agent, the day we arrived, and since that time have been very busy in taking account of stock on hand, etc. On Sabbath I went out and attended the meeting with the Indians, and was pleased to find that Thomas Pearne and George Waters had kept up a Sabbath school, where about 35 children were instructed from Sabbath to Sabbath by them. The meeting was large and the Indians had kept up the forms, and the spirit of worship during my absence better than I had feared. Some twenty had united with them this winter.

The Catholic Sentinel furnishes the following: At the first meeting of the Board of Managers of the Catholic Library and Christian Doctrine Society, held last Sunday afternoon, a resolution was passed to subscribe for 75 copies of the Young Catholic and 25 copies of the Guardian Angel, for distribution to our Sunday School children. It is intended to subscribe for a number of copies of one or two more of our Sunday School papers.

At the last meeting of the Conference of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in this city, the following annual statement of its affairs was presented:

Amount collected at the meetings of the Conference since the establishment of the Society, October 10, 1860	$320 30
Amount of net proceeds of the concert held for its benefit April 18, 1870	288 50
Contributed by the ladies' auxiliary Society	26 60
Cash returned	75
Total amount of receipts	$636 15
Of this amount there was expended for the relief of the poor	$391 82
Current expenses of Conference	99 23
Balance on hand	$145 10

The number of families and individuals relieved is 23.

Number of members, 43.

AMUSEMENTS.

Mr. Vinson's Benefit.—Mr. Vinson had a most flattering turnout to his benefit last night, the house being crowded. The entertainment, too, was really one of the best of the season, beginning with the elegant comedy of "One Day of Married Life," followed by a skating tournament and snowballing scene, and concluding with the very laughable local extravaganza of "A Sleep of 100 Years, or Portland in 1971." The skating tournament was a lively and exciting scene, in which seven or eight of our young men and boys participated, showing (though to great disadvantage on account of limited room), some of the feats that may be performed on parlor skates. The snow-balling brought down the house, as indeed, it did some of the skaters, and, at the close, the performance was loudly encored. The closing piece was a very entertaining comedy adapted and made local to Portland. It contains a number of local hits very cleverly put in, and altogether is a taking comedy. The last scenes present an extravagant picture of the state of things to be a hundred years hence, when the "coming man," the "coming woman" and the "girl of the period," etc., etc., shall be in full blast. The play will be repeated to-night as a part of another excellent bill.

Matinees.—There will be a matinee as usual at Oro Fino Theater at 2 o'clock P. M.

The Vieuxtemps Brothers and Mart Taylor will give a matinee at 2 P. M., at Philharmonic Hall, and another performance in the evening.

Panorama.—Dores' Panorama of Paradise Lost will be exhibited at East Portland this evening. The exhibition is worth visiting.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The brig Perpetua arrived at Astoria on Wednesday, and went to Cementville to load with lumber.

Baker Post No. 1, G. A. R., will hold its regular semi monthly meeting to-night.

James R. Breese is inquired for by his friends and relatives at Oakland, California.

The cutter Shubrick has been up to the St. Helens bar and set three spar buoys.

The bark Gungner is at anchor near St. Helens, and will not go down the river till Monday.

Absalom's red flag brigade has not yet made its appearance, and there are people uncharitable enough to think he won't organize 'em at all.

A Case of "Footsteps on the Stairs."—A person in the employ of Mr. F. Opitz, on First street, who sleeps up stairs, arose early yesterday morning, while it was not yet day, and went to the back door which opens from the head of a flight of stairs, for the purpose of descending to the ground. On the top landing he stepped upon a dog which had coiled himself up for a snooze, and stumbling, fell, rolled and tumbled to the very bottom of the stairs, receiving more cuts and bruises than would be required to illustrate a prize fightest after his fortieth round.

Quite a Difference.—Nearly all the small-pox cases, thus far, have been in the upper end of the city. When the ordinance requiring the head of the Police to mark smallpox houses with red flags, was passed, there was a case in the north end, and the Councilman who introduced it had to walk two blocks out of his way to avoid it as he went home of nights. There are doubtless many who will remember who was the author of the ordinance. His name began with a halfob.

Business Notice.—Messrs. Oatman & Hackney, who are among the cleverest of retail grocers and, therefore, among the most prosperous of that class of dealers, have just moved their stock of goods into a bran new establishment at the corner of First and Madison streets, so near to their old place that all their former customers can easily find them. From their new base they will carry on business on a larger scale than ever.

The Winner of the Skates.—A pair of parlor skates were awarded last evening to the best skater in the tournament at Oro Fino Theater. The award was made by acclaim of the audience. The young man with the "white coat" had the most frequent and loud calls, though others were named, and the skates were given accordingly. Mr. Charles S. Mills, Jr., was the winner, he being the "white coat."

Sermon on "Reform Schools."—Rev. Mr. Eliot's sermon on Reform Schools will be preached at the morning service to-morrow, at the Unitarian church, corner of Yamhill and Seventh streets.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS
MILL FURNISHING GOODS, WOOD-WORKING
MACHINERY,
RUBBER AND LEATHER BELTING, FARM WAGONS, GRASS SEEDS, ETC., ETC.

The particular attention of the Farming Community is called to our recent importation of Improved MOLINE PLOWS, greatly superior to any other Moline Plow in the Market, notwithstanding a certain firm, somewhat noted for truth and veracity—"so called"—persist in affirming that they are "bogus," "California made," etc.

Don't fail to call and look at one of the MOLINE PLOW Co's LATEST MAKE; and we think you will coincide with a Yamhill Farmer; who, after "looking 'round" and hearing the old story about bogus Molines, etc., delivered himself thusly: "Well, Myers, I'll just chance a couple of those new plows, and if they are 'bogus,' as that gassy chap above here says, I'll be d—ned if I won't take bogus in mine every time."

Next month we expect another shipment of those justly celebrated BAIN WAGONS, (Have now only a few left of the last lot,) STILL FURTHER IMPROVED over all heretofore received. It is not presumption on our part to say that they are head and shoulders above any other Farm wagon in market, in point of material, workmanship and finish, having achieved a reputation throughout the West, and wherever introduced on the Pacific, second to no other wagon. Some of the first sold here—three years ago,—have never yet had a tire re-set, and our experience has enabled us to order many changes and improvements over the ordinary make of western wagons to meet the wants and requirements of this coast. We shall sell the BAIN WAGON at the lowest possible price for a first-class wagon, and WARRANT them such, and in this connection beg to caution purchasers not to confound them with "inferior makes" that others are, or may endeavor to sell on the strength of the established reputation of the Bain manufacture, particularly after having made repeated and persistent efforts (without avail) to purchase wagons of Mr. Bain for this market.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 14, 1870.
WE APPOINTED TRAVER BROS., OF Portland, Oregon, Nov. 1, 1869, our exclusive Agents for the sale of the HOME SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE in Oregon and the Territories of Washington, Idaho and Montana. We hereby give notice that no other parties have the right to appoint Sub-Agents or furnish them with machines. Another firm have made bogus Home Shuttle Sewing Machines and are now attempting to palm them off on the public as genuine machines, thus infringing on our rights and rendering themselves liable to prosecution. We caution all persons not to purchase Home Shuttle Sewing Machines in the territory named above from any parties except Traver Bros., Portland, or parties having a certificate of agency signed by them. Our new machines have valuable improvements.

Horrors of the War

A London letter (Dec. 17) to the New York T[illegible], has epitomizes some of the horrors of the war in France

Von der Tann has been sent to Orleans, not only because his losses had been very large, but because his Bavarians were completely demoralized They have constantly been kept at the front, and are tired of it. They would be glad to have the Prussians take their turn The weather has been very cold. Around Paris the rich furniture of hundreds of villas has been burnt to warm the soldiers. "Nothing burns so well as piano-wood" At Versailles, they are eating all the cows, and the destruction of every young animal as soon as born will make famine in the future. In the Paris sortie the French not only cut up and carried off the flesh of every horse of their own killed or wounded, but added to their meat supplies some hundreds of dead horses of the Germans. Those taken at Champigny were said to be 1,000 or 1,200. South of the Loire, perhaps the richest and loveliest district of France, there is a terrible desolation. The French would nowhere stay beaten. They attacked the Germans, day after day, three days running, with incredible fury, and though the King of Prussia telegraphed that they were victoriously repulsed, it was not without heavy losses. On every side were many burning villages; while every house that was not burned was crammed full of the French and German wounded, and the fields were filled with dead men and horses. At one point we are told of fifty thousand men sleeping in the open air in a frosty night warming themselves from time to time at huge fires of unthrashed wheat, which added their glow to the fires of burning villages. So many villages are burned that the names are not remembered, and they are described as the village that is burning, or "the village next the one that is burning." The larger towns are not burnt—only plundered. After the battle of Orleans, the cathedral was filled with wounded prisoners. Even the Archbishop, the eloquent Dupanloup, was held a [illegible] with sentries posted at his gates; [illegible] perhaps, of preaching war [illegible]. For the whimsical [illegible] terribly angry [illegible] so Berlin [illegible] because the French [illegible] even Paris, [illegible] themselves troubles are generally. [illegible] Englishmen scold because the French not know when they are beat [illegible] is being by the privilege of the English Paris should have [illegible] and opened her gates [illegible] gratefully [illegible] three months [illegible] such terms [illegible] all [illegible] to grant [illegible] not what beside [illegible] France is responsible [illegible] every man killed on both sides for every village [illegible] all the horrors and sufferings of the [illegible] as never so much as occurred [illegible] that they would stop the [illegible] not now [illegible] when they would have more [illegible] glory than now remains [illegible] with a hundred victories [illegible] coming from Germany [illegible] some say one hundred and fifty thousand [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] has been threatened for months [illegible] and Paris seems to [illegible] their effort to break [illegible] threatened bombardment On the other hand, the [illegible] are actually being mounted with [illegible] heavy artillery [illegible] faces at [illegible]

[illegible] agents soliciting subscribers for a [illegible] the prospectus [illegible] man who [illegible] one dollar in boards and on [illegible] and twenty-five cents in sheep [illegible] writing as he might not [illegible] sheep on hand when called [illegible]

LAND DEPARTMENT OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM, OREGON, October 22, 1870

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned.

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd-numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands co-terminus with the first division of located line from East Portland to Jefferson, at 12 M. February 16, 1870. The second division of located line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May, 1870, and from the last named point to the California line, 1870.

Second—Persons who have valid pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks, and upon very favorable terms, if they so desire, by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U. S. Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government: The party can leave the land if necessary; he can sell the land or mortgage it; he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents' fees, and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to "prove up" his claim; he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior.

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect.

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco, Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies so that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON,

IS NOW [illegible] RECEIVING SUBSCRIPTIONS [illegible] SHARES [illegible] before [illegible] and a large number [illegible]

[illegible] from the [illegible] and [illegible] of the line and working of [illegible]

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

[illegible] of whose organization we gave [illegible] days since is now ready to do [illegible] the pioneer [illegible] this city, it may be [illegible] state what are its purposes [illegible] it is proposed to [illegible] The purposes of those [illegible] in the [illegible] sense of the word. They are [illegible] their investment upon the [illegible] value of their [illegible] upon the co-operation of many [illegible] advantages [illegible] surrounding lands by reason of the [illegible] population and demand for room [illegible] near the city. The Riverside Association has a tract over one [illegible] twenty acres of land situated [illegible] on the east side of the [illegible] the same [illegible] ferry landing at East Portland. The tract [illegible] along the Willamette [illegible] in length, and another strip along the [illegible] California railroad, half a mile [illegible] strips being connected [illegible] rows of blocks [illegible] whole forming a figure [illegible] It is divided into 14 blocks, 200 feet [illegible] streets running at right angles; and [illegible] lots, along the river front. The [illegible] 500, worth $40 per [illegible] It will [illegible] a share than [illegible] a lot [illegible] vided interest in the 50 [illegible] shares are to be sold [illegible] for the [illegible] coming in for the [illegible] number of shares held [illegible] taken and the [illegible] be [illegible] put up at [illegible] bidder the proceeds of such sales [illegible] the original price of shares or lots [illegible] equally among the whole [illegible] Thus if a person wants a particular [illegible] and is willing to pay $100 or $200 [illegible] or less as the case may be) he [illegible] the lot or block at his [illegible] premium being divided among the [illegible] of shareholders It will be seen, [illegible] everything is co operative, and [illegible] No man can make a dollar [illegible] our also making a dollar for [illegible] shareholder There is no [illegible] the property, by some chance, [illegible] far below the first actual cost [illegible] liable to happen in the case of [illegible] tract of land must be judged by [illegible] but considering the steady and [illegible] vance on real estate in this [illegible] hood, and at East Portland [illegible] last year or two, [illegible] values to go back

In the Riverside Association all [illegible] seem to have been taken to [illegible] monopolies of shares We [illegible] buy more than the number of [illegible] those blocks, or twenty four lots, and [illegible] terminating the operations of the [illegible] restricted in the same [illegible] shares may pay down $50 per [illegible] exempt them from all [illegible] pay $15 quarterly with an [illegible] share, payable with the first [illegible] liable in this latter case to [illegible] other [illegible] of $3 per [illegible] payment of the [illegible] in full, [illegible] as above, the holder is [illegible] and his proportion of all the [illegible] all sources. No officer of the [illegible] any pay for services [illegible] gets $15 per month, to [illegible] expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the [illegible] a high position, nearly level, [illegible] above the water. There is no part of the [illegible] row of blocks [illegible] of [illegible] Portland and the river for miles up and down stream That part of the tract lying along the railroad is, every foot of it, of the [illegible] and adapted to gardening purposes A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this wing of the tract, affording the means of irrigation, and power [illegible] to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract There is not a waste lot or [illegible] lot in the entire tract. Under all these advantages it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders. Within [illegible] each shareholder, if he choose, may get [illegible] perfect title to as many lots as his shares [illegible] represent [illegible] he may continue his interest, [illegible] with the Association while the organization [illegible] in operation.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD [illegible]

We [illegible] fact that [illegible] making [illegible] skirts of [illegible] and East Portland [illegible] discussed [illegible] up. [illegible] tract of land lying [illegible] shape [illegible] which a half mile [illegible] portion of the [illegible] forty or [illegible] extensive view [illegible] the Willamette [illegible] land is very fertile, and [illegible] timber A tract of land [illegible] rows of blocks, with an avenue between them [illegible] the west prong of the H (which [illegible] described with that of the east. This [illegible] beautiful little valley, which is [illegible] the water Through its whole [illegible] of which is clear and [illegible] Association proposes [illegible] conveyed through pipes to every portion [illegible] Daily Bulletin.
